

Whether you're looking for a corporate video or an online or TV advert, we can provide an end-to-end video production package that's tailored to your needs. This can include:

- Scriptwriting and storyboarding
- Filming and editing
- Transferring copyright of the finished video to your business
- Uploading the video to your website and/or external sites such as YouTube
- Exporting the video to DVD and alternative files for media and web use.

Please contact us to discuss your scriptwriting and video requirements, or if you'd like to see our scriptwriting portfolio.

Notes

1. We only offer video production packages where Black & Write has been engaged to write the video script and/or storyboard.

2. All services except scriptwriting and storyboarding will be provided by a third party video production company. We'll source quotes from at least two reputable suppliers for you to choose from.

3. As this is a package service, we'll liaise with your chosen video production company on your behalf . We'll charge a small fee for this.
